Dear Dr. Ilano,

Greetings!

I am writing to respectfully request your approval for the following activities aimed at monitoring the progress of GAA-approved research projects and supporting faculty publication goals for 2026.

I. Research Project Updates Presentation

I propose to schedule a presentation session on November 7, 2025, where all principal investigators of GAA-approved research projects for 2025 will present updates on their research progress. The presentation should include:

- Current status of the research project
- Key findings and accomplishments to date
- Challenges encountered and solutions implemented
- Timeline for project completion
- Budget utilization

II. Publication Submissions for 2026

For faculty members who wish to publish their research papers in 2026, I recommend setting a deadline for them to submit the following documents to the Research and Development Office on or before October 31, 2025:

1. Research paper title(s)
2. Complete draft manuscript (formatted according to target journal requirements)
3. Current review status (e.g., manuscript prepared, under review, with revisions, etc.)
4. Target journal or publication venue

These submissions will also be presented during the November 7, 2025 research update session to facilitate collaborative feedback and ensure alignment with institutional research priorities.

Proposed Timeline:

- October 31, 2025 – Submission of titles, draft papers, and review status to R&D Office
- November 7, 2025 – Presentation of research updates and publication plans
